

I am a listener of K-LOVE radio via transponder. We are a small community and without the transponder service for this station there would be no programming of this format in my listening area. I believe that the transponder service as is currently used is more in the public interest than giving priority to LPFM. There is efficiency in multi-serving communities via one national broadcast and transponders.